ARLON BENNETT & The Healing Project

Arlon is an award winning songwriter and amazing performer. His third CD, "Summer's Voice," includes "Be the Change," one of the most played songs on folk radio in 2007. The title cut played to a packed Shea Stadium crowd in a tribute to Hall of Fame sportscaster Bob Murphy. His most recent recording, "World of Possibility," quietly reveals Arlon's diagnosis of Parkinson's disease in 2010. Despite the challenge, he continues to perform with his band, The Healing Project, to both help heal himself and spread healing through his music. As he likes to say, "It's about the music!"
